IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

WILLIAM P. COOKE,

Petitioner,

v.

ORDER
05-C-466-S

HOMELESS NEGRO PIMP,

Respondent.

Petitioner requests leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Attached to his affidavit of indigency is a proposed complaint.

Petitioner's allegations are not legible. It appears he is claiming a "homeless Negro pimp" took some action against him. This allegation does not support a claim for relief under federal law. 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Accordingly, petitioner's request to proceed in forma pauperis will be dismissed and denied without prejudice.

Petitioner is advised that in any future proceedings in this matter he must offer argument not cumulative of that already provided to undermine this Court's conclusion that his claim must be dismissed. See Newlin v. Helman, 123 F.3d 429, 433 (7th Cir. 1997).

Petitioner filed twenty seven complaints in this Court from July 25 to July 28, 2005. The total number of complaints filed in this district in the same time period was 39. All but one of petitioner's complaints did not allege facts that support a claim for relief under federal law. Petitioner continues to file complaints in this Court naming private individuals who have offended him after being advised that these complaints do not support federal law claims. In the future the Clerk's office is directed to accept petitioner's pleadings without filing them and to forward them to this Court. The Court will then determine if it has subject matter jurisdiction over his complaint before having it filed.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that petitioner's request to proceed in forma pauperis is DENIED and DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk's Office is directed to accept petitioner's pleadings without filing them and to forward them to this Court for review.

Entered this 2nd day of August, 2005
